THE N°. 344.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

WEDNESDAY, November 27, 1751.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 25.

WE have a moſt diſagreeable Scene before us this Year, the Plague has ſo conſiderably augmented, as to oblige the Inhabitants to be almoſt continually removing from one Village to another, or rather from one Seat of Infection to the other; for even the remoteſt Parts, which were always thought to be the moſt ſecure, have not been exempt. In the midſt of this Calamity, we have had four ſucceſſive Fires; the firſt on the ninth Inſtant, near the Moſque of Sultan Mehomet, which burnt for 21 Hours, with a violent North-Eaſt Wind, by which nine Diſtricts of the Town have been conſumed, each Diſtrict containing about 700 Houſes, among which were the Quarters of the Janizaries, conſiſting of 98 Ranges of Chambers, each uſually containing from 350 to 400 Men. The Janizaries then preſent, to the Number of about 20,000, were, in this Extremity, obliged to encamp on the great Place called the Eithmeidan; 200 of them have been ſince miſſing, and it is concluded were deſtroyed in attempting to extinguiſh the Flames. The other three Fires were leſs conſiderable, burning only four or five Hours each; by which, however, many Seraglio's of the great Men of this Government, have been reduced to Aſhes.

Hamburg, Auguſt 27. Letters from Conſtantinople ſay, that the Plague rages ſo violently, as to carry off daily upwards of 1000 Perſons in that Capital.

Aleppo, June 22. By Letters from Baſſora, of the 15th of May, we are informed, that the Dutch Affairs are much perplexed both on that, and the Malabar Coaſt, and even on Java, through the Wars they are engaged in with the Country People; and the Death of their General, Baron Imhoff, ſtill adds to the Confuſion of their Affairs.

Genoa, Auguſt 14. Two of our Galleys, which lately went in Queſt of the Corſairs of Barbary, brought Yeſterday into this Port two Merchant Ships bearing the Turkiſh Flag, bound to the Levant, and laden with divers Kinds of Merchandize.

Schaffhauſen, Auguſt 24. We are aſſured that the Pope, the Courts of Turin and Naples, the Duke of Modena, the Republics of Venice, Genoa, and Lucca, have unanimouſly reſolved again to make ſtrong Repreſentations to the Emperor, as Grand Duke of Tuſcany, to engage his Imperial Majeſty not to grant the Barbary Corſairs in future any Retreat in his Ports, becauſe of the inexpreſſible Damage that has reſulted therefrom to the Commerce of the Chriſtian Powers in the Mediterranean.

Amſterdam, Sept. 3. We have Advice that the King of Denmark has bought of the Emperor of Morocco, for the Sum of 70,000 Ducats, the Ports of Saffia and St. Croix, on the Coaſt of Barbary.

Hague, Auguſt 29. The Affairs of the Dutch Eaſt India Company are declining in a moſt aſtoniſhing Manner, and the more ſo as Nobody can ſee any Cauſe for it. The Ships which laſt arrived from thence are more numerous and richer than what have come from thence for many Years paſt, the Merchandize is better choſen, and will ſell for one Third more than what uſed to be brought by the India Ships. In ſhort, the Affairs of the Company are ſeemingly upon a better Footing than they were before the Death of Baron Imhoff, the late Governor of Batavia, by the Prudence and good Conduct of the new General, who is a very able upright Man. Notwithſtanding all this, the Actions are all on a ſudden fallen more than 12 per Cent, and the Chief of the Company ſell out as faſt as they can; but what is ſtill more ſurpaizing is, that it is the Heads of the Party that oppoſes the preſent Regency, who eagerly buy in theſe Actions, which one would imagine would not only ſupport, but even raiſe them, and yet the contrary happens.

LONDON.

Auguſt 29. From Bath we have an Account of the following Intrigue: A young Fellow, a Deſerter in the Guards, in order to conceal himſelf, was hired to a Perſon of Diſtinction as an Upper Houſe-Maid in the Family; from his Entrance into the Houſe he had a Female Bedfellow, and they, in a ſhort Time, were obſerved by the reſt of the Servants, to have an uncommon Eſteem for each other; the Reaſon was concealed for near eighteen Months, till at laſt poor Jenny unwillingly betrayed herſelf by the Roundneſs of her Hips, which occaſioned the reſt of the Girls in the Family to conſult together, and privately examine the pretended Houſe-Maid, as thus: One Night, in the Abſence of the Maid, who was pregnant, and while the other was faſt locked in Sleep, they crept unobſerved to his Apartment, and were ſoon convinced, but, upon Mary's (which was the Name he went by) awaking, they ſhriek'd and ran down Stairs over each other; the Fellow next Morning, handled up his Petticoats, made an Elopement, and has left poor Jenny to Father the Child. The old Lady, a Woman of 70, who ſometimes had a Maid to lie with her, cried out, upon hearing of it, What a Miracle have I eſcaped! It might as well have happened to me!

Tueſday Morning upwards of 150 Palatines embarked on board the Antelope, Capt. John M'Clellan, lying in the River, bound for Georgia.

From Vienna we have an Account of a dreadful Fire that happened at Stamſea, near Preſburg, which is Part of the Eſtate of Count Leopold Palfy, whereby ninety Houſes were reduced to Aſhes, and ſome others greatly damaged.

The Merchants of this City have appointed a Meeting To-morrow, in order to prepare a Petition to Parliament, for providing ſome effectual Means to prevent the moſt infamous Depredations on the Property of Merchants ſuffering by Shipwreck.

The Malteze Galleys are put to Sea on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates, who are going to receive a Preſent of naval Stores from his Daniſh Majeſty, which will only enable them to augment their Depredations.

From the Utrecht Gazette we learn, that the Engliſh Eaſt-India Company have reſolved to contract for four Companies of Switzers, of 150 Men each; they are to rendezvous at a Town upon the Rhine, in order to embark for England, where they are immediately to receive £ 7 each Man, and from thence to ſerve in the Settlement of that Company.

Laſt Week a brilliant young Lady of the firſt Water, intending the Tour of France, and without doubt to appear in full Luſtre there, ſent a Card to a grave Merchant of this City, to enquire the Character of a Valet, lately diſcharged the Gentleman's Service, containing the following remarkable but important Queſtions: Can he flourish a Flambeau well? Can he breed a Riot in a Playhouſe? And can he give a genteel Rap at a Door? To which Anſwer the good old Gentleman returning no other Anſwer than that he was a very honeſt, ſober, and diligent Fellow, the Lady was pleaſed immediately to diſmiſs him as unqualified for ſuch an Expedition.

Auguſt 29. There is ſaid to be a Scheme on Foot for redreſſing the Grievances complain'd of from ſending Felons over into the Plantations, and at the ſame Time, for rendering them more ſerviceable to the Community; but in what Manner is not as yet publicly known.

Aug. 31. The King of Spain has made it Death for any of his his Subjects that ſhall for the future be detected in a contraband Trade with the Engliſh, beſides Confiſcation of their Effects.

A numerous Colony is ſaid to have been lately diſcovered in Greenland, on the other Side of the Mountains, to the Northward of Davis's Streights. They appear to be Chriſtians, by the frequent Uſe of the Croſs.

It is ſaid there is a Scheme on Foot for making the ſeveral Jails in this Metropolis larger, and conſequently leſs unwholeſome than they are at preſent; and for eſtabliſhing ſome Kind of Manufacture in each of them, that the Induſtrious may have an Opportunity of maintaining themſelves at leaſt, if not of procuring their Liberty, by their own Labour.

The Whiſpers of the minor Politicians, in reference to certain Changes, are ſo irreconcileable and improbable, that wiſe People conclude them groundleſs; and that unleſs Death interferes, there will be no Removes of any Conſequence before the next November Meeting.

By the freſheſt Advices from the Eaſt Indies it appears, that the new Nabob ſet up by M. Dupleix, had begun his March ſome Time in December or January laſt, with a powerful Army of Indians, and a good Body of French Troops, towards Golconda, Capital of the Kingdom of the ſame Name, in order to take Poſſeſſion of it. Theſe Advices confirm the former Account of the vaſt Booty made by the French in the Camp of the late Nabob, great Part of which, M. Dupleix has honeſtly and properly applied towards paying off all the Company's Debts in India.

ANNAPOLIS.

On Wedneſday Morning laſt, about two of the Clock, a moſt horrid and premeditated Murder was committed in Baltimore County, on the Body of Sarah Clark, and was attempted likewiſe on her Huſband John Clark. By what we can learn, this Affair was contriv'd ſome Time before by one John Berry, Son in Law to Clark, who propos'd to make himſelf Maſter of Clark's Money, and then to marry an Orphan Girl, named Sarah Catcham, who had been brought up by Clark's firſt Wife; to ſet two Servants (a Man and a Woman) free; to give a little Boy (an indented Servant) a Horſe and Saddle, and ſo to enjoy the Eſtate: That about a Fortnight before the Perpetration of this horrid Fact, Berry took the four laſt mentioned into the Woods, and having acquainted them with his Intentions, ſwore them all to Secrecy. The Time appointed for putting their Deſign in Execution being at hand, when Clark and his Wife were faſt aſleep in Bed, Martha with an Axe, and the Servant Woman with a Candle, went into the Room, and Martha gave Mrs. Clark ſeveral Blows on the Head with the Axe, which ſplit her Scull in a terrible Manner, and kill'd her on the Spot; ſhe then ſtruck the Huſband ſeveral Blows with it, which ſtunn'd him in ſuch a Manner that they left him for dead; but afterwards perceiving ſome Life in him, the old Woman Servant told Pat to take a Shoemaker's Knife and cut his Throat, and make a Finiſh of it; ſhe accordingly took the Knife and went towards the Bed; but her Heart failing her, the Knife fell out of her Hand. After this, they all cried out Murder, and a neighbouring Woman coming in, went to the Bed Side in the Dark, and feeling of Mrs. Clark's Head, her Fingers went quite into one of the Wounds in her Scull; whereupon ſhe called to the Huſband, and with ſome Difficulty awaked him; who ſitting up in the Bed, put his Hand to his Face, which was all over Blood, and the Skin and Fleſh hanging down over one of his Cheeks, and cried out, Lord have Mercy upon me, what is the Matter with me? Why, ſays the Woman, Your Servants have murder'd your Wife by your Side, and almoſt murder'd you. He turned towards his Wife, and finding true what his Neighbour had told him, made great Lamentation. The Woman immediately charged the Servant Woman and Martha with the Murder, for Berry and the Servant Man were gone out to call for Help, deſigning to lay the Murder on Perſons unknown; and ſome People then coming in, they ſeiz'd the old Woman and Pat, and bound them, on which Pat confeſſed what ſhe had done. They are both confined in Joppa Goal, as are alſo Berry and the other Man, and the Boy, who is about thirteen Years of Age; and it is not to be doubted but they will all receive the Puniſhment due for ſo horrid a Crime.

We hear from Dorcheſter County, that Col. Henry Hooper, Mr. Charles Goldſborough, Col. Ennalls Hooper, and Mr. Daniel Sullivane, are choſen to repreſent that County.

In St. Mary's County, Capt. Zachariah Bond, Major Abraham Barnes, Mr. James Mills, and Philip Key, Eſq; are elected for that County.

In Calvert County, Mr. James John Mackall, Mr. Benjamin Mackall, junior, Mr. Thomas Reynolds, and Mr. Edward Gant, are elected for that County.

[The Publication of this Paper being delay'd till this Time, Thurſday Evening, Nov. 28.] We can give an Account of the Election of Members for this County. The Poll began Yeſterday Noon, and was juſt now cloſed, when Mr. Thomas Worthington, Philip Hammond, Eſq; Dr. Charles Carroll, and Major Henry Hall, were declared duly elected.

The Poll for the ſeveral Candidates, on cloſing the ſame, ſtood thus: For T. W. 438; P. H. 383; C. C. 348; H. H. 344; S. B. 333; E. D. 290; T. D. 288. The Number of VOTERS was 660.

Mr. GREEN,

AS the Papiſts have craftily attached to their Intereſt ſome Gentlemen, who were Diſſenters from the Church of England, under the Notion of their being ſubject to the Penalties of ſeveral Acts of Parliament in Force, within this Province, whereas in Fact, the Suggeſtion is in itſelf falſe; and it muſt be through Inadvertency or want of Attention, that any of his Majeſty's Subjects within this Province diſſenting from the Church of England, give Ear or Credit to ſuch Allegations.

If you will pleaſe to give this Room in your next Gazette, to inform theſe worthy Subjects, that in the Body of Laws of this Province, (Page 48) they will find an Act, declaring ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in the Kingdom of England to be in Force, within this Province; and in which Act they ſee that the Act commonly called the Toleration Act, made in the firſt Year of the Reign of King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, Entituled, An Act for exempting their Majeſties Proteſtant Subjects, diſſenting from the Church of England, from the Penalties of certain Laws, is in full Force within this Province, whereby, and other ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, they are ſecured againſt the Effect of the Penal Statutes, with which their artful Adverſaries would endeavour to frighten them.

I am,

Yours and their Friend and Well wiſher,

A. B.
